

When, where and how often will you meet?

Beginning in mid July of 2009, we will meet weekly to bead.

We are targeting Sunday afternoons at my home.

The meetings are expected to last 3 hours and will run for 15 weeks.

As the opportunities arise, we will travel to Oneida, Wisconsin to visit and interview our elders.

As our understanding of our culture and its symbolism in our work deepens, I anticipate many unscheduled visits including other members of our families, as well as elders in our tribe, to sing, talk and pray together.

I expect the formal apprenticeship to conclude by New Years of 2010.

Where, when and how often will you meet?

Most often at my home, sometimes at hers. In the beginning 1-2 times a week. Later on once a month at least. 2-6 hours per session about 150-200 hrs thru out the year maybe more. I work long hours to finish an order or get ready for an event, she can help & come along to various shops & pow-wows.

Where, when and how often will you meet?

The class will be held at my home in Kenosha. One meeting will be held at Rita's home near Oostburg, when we will invite one or two interested people from the community to observe. The first class meeting will be Monday, July 13. We have planned to meet for ten seven-hour sessions between that date and September 30. Depending on the content of the class, we will schedule meetings for one or two days each week. We have allowed extra time for unexpected events in our lives.

Where, when and how often will you meet?

We will meet for 13 - two hour sessions. We will meet every week or every other week. We will meet at the Oneida Nation Arts Program Cottage and my studio in Door County.
